Profile

Le Thi Thanh Van is a Partner of VIETRIDGE COUNSEL with more than 28 years of experience in corporate legal matters in Vietnam.

She advises on corporate structuring, governance, compliance and internal operations, with practical experience in business activities and project implementation.

Her background in in-house legal roles provides her with a strong understanding of how legal frameworks operate within organisations, enabling her to deliver advice that is both compliant and workable in practice.

Representative Experience

Her experience includes:

- Advising on corporate structuring and governance frameworks for business operations
- Establishing and implementing compliance and internal control systems
- Drafting and negotiating commercial contracts and internal documentation
- Advising on shareholder, management and internal corporate matters
- Supporting legal aspects of business operations and project implementation
- Advising on employment matters, including internal policies, disciplinary actions and termination
- Working closely with management teams to address legal and operational issues in day-to-day business

Approach

She focuses on ensuring that legal and corporate structures are not only compliant but also workable in practice. Her advice integrates legal requirements with operational realities, supporting effective implementation within organisations.
